

WANTS TO BUILD SPAVINAW ROAD

Chas. Page Interested Again in the Water Proposition

RIGHT OF WAY FREE

Says He Intends to Tap the Iron Mountain and Bring It Here

Chas. Page is interested in the Spavinaw water project. His letter was shown in a letter to the Non-garrison Water Commission at the weekly meeting of that body Monday afternoon. In his letter Page commences his readiness to build a railroad from Tulsa to Spavinaw, paralleling the pipeline, and connecting that city with the Iron Mountain railroad at Cartersville.

According to the report of Engineers G. H. Nichols and J. L. Cromm, who made the Spavinaw survey, it will be necessary for the commissioners to subscribe a portion of each week at the貫ochard school. Through the course is intended primarily for those intending to enter the church, it is also open to those desiring to know about the church beliefs.

NON-GARRISON'S OFFICERS—The National bank will hold their annual meeting February 3 for the election of the board of directors. The meeting was postponed from that regularly fixed, the second Tuesday in January, because of the death of G. W. Lewis, father of W. L. and A. M. Lewis, both officers in the bank, and his burial January 19.

CONVENTION HALL GOERS will find a "warm welcome" there the remainder of the winter season as the gas heating system was taken down Saturday because of a recent drop in the ambient temperature, but installation is to be completed by next week. A load of coal rattled merrily into the basement yesterday. The change will be completed by the middle of the week. J. V. Prothero, in charge of the building, stated: Heating of Convention hall is a problem no matter what the system employed, as the hall is so large.

MARRIAGE LICENSES issued Monday: Joe H. Myrick, 29, of Sand Springs and Fay Talmadge, 18, of Platt; Arthur O. Buck, 25, and Mabel E. Russell, 28, of Tulsa; E. F. Stappar, 31, and Blanche Grissom, 28, of Tulsa; E. E. Brown, 21, and Ruth E. Brown, 18, of Tulsa; R. S. Steele, 25, and Jasmin Turner, 19, of Tulsa; Jewett C. Mason, 22, of Dangerville, Texas, and Victoria Johnson, 26, of Antlers; Richard Harris, 23, and Lila Mack, 24, of Tulsa; William R. Wilholt, 32, of Springfield, Mo., and Lena E. Soules, 29, of Tulsa.

"I would be very much interested in building a railroad from Tulsa to interest the Iron Mountain in order to bring another railroad into Tulsa. I believe I can arrange with them to run their trains into Tulsa, using our terminals."

"I am continuing in making such a deal on anything of this kind. I would like to figure with you, as it is my intention to build my road through to Mohawk, anyway, in order to serve some interests which I have there, and to furnish trackage for my own railroads."

Not Ready to Negotiate.

"I understand that some time ago some members of your board and the president of the Chamber of Commerce had this same matter up with Colonel Reeves, who under date of Dec. 1, 1920, was writing on a project to connect the Iron Mountain with Tulsa. Since Colonel Reeves' resignation from the Chamber of Commerce I have made arrangements with him and his company to conduct certain surveys and work out certain development projects in connection with the Iron Mountain's interests. I have had this matter up with him and he is perfectly willing to forego any promise that may have been made him with reference to the construction of this road, in the interests of the general plan."

"Right-of-way for the Spavinaw pipeline has not been secured by the city, which, according to Younkman, is not yet ready to enter into a contract for this railroad. Younkman and A. L. Farmer, member of the commission, were instructed to answer Page's letter."

HOLD QUARTERLY MEETING

W. C. T. U. Enjoy Program in Commemorating Prohibition.

The second anniversary of the passage of the 18th amendment was commemorated by the City Federation of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Monday at a meeting in the First Christian church. The meeting was the first quarterly session of the city federation during the year 1922.

Dr. W. Gordon of the University of Tulsa spoke at the meeting on the subject: "The World Looks to Us for Moral Leadership." John R. Hadley in an address before the club advocated the passage of a 19th amendment which would aid in the enforcement of the prohibition amendment.

A strong plea for a law-abiding nation during the next generation was made by C. A. Borders, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. An address by A. A. Smith on "Is Law to Be Sovereign in the United States" was loudly applauded.

TWO FINED FOR POSSESSION.

Weber and Terrel Are Found Guilty and Assessed $19 and Costs Each.

Hugh H. Weber and W. H. Terrel were found guilty and fined $19 and costs each on a charge of possession of intoxicating liquors Monday afternoon in police court. Weber was also fined $19 and costs for vagrancy.

The two men were arrested Sunday night when a raiding squad led by Chief of Police George H. Blaine and Chief of Detectives J. W. Pottoroff surprised them. Detective D. B. Monden, N. A. Billard, J. F. Blaine and Sid Jackson raided the two men's apartment on West Brady. Several bottles of corn whiskey were seized and confiscated in the raid.

Turk Brothers Return.

W. C. and E. Turk returned a few days ago from the national show at the convention in Chicago, bringing back with them a pair of the ladies' footware which was worn by the models in the style show there. These shoes are now on display in the window of the Turk brothers' store, 412 South Main street.

WILL PROSECUTE ENTIRE 20 MEN

Slogan of Crusaders Will Be to Treat All Law Violators Alike

The 20 men arrested Saturday afternoon by the four special deputy sheriffs were charged with unlawful possession of liquor in information issued Monday in court. Every one of the men will be prosecuted, according to the police, who have adopted the policy of treating all alike.

THE CRUSADERS IN THE doctrine of the crusade church is being conducted by Dr. Prester, who will pass sentence on the 20 men he will prosecute at the trial. The crusade church is to be held in the new temple during the voluntary meeting this evening.
